2012 INFORMATION BULLETIN

Priesthood Leadership Conference on Scouting at Philmont June 30—July 6 or July 7—July 13

Members of stake and district presidencies are invited to attend the annual Priesthood Leadership Conference on Scouting hosted by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Stake and district Young Men presidents and high councilors with Scouting responsibilities may attend with their stake and district presidency members:

- The conference, under the direction of the Church General Scouting Committee, is held at the Philmont Training Center (PTC) located on the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico.
- Priesthood leadership and Scouting training is provided by members of the Young Men and Primary general presidencies and boards.
- Participants attend a conference beginning either Saturday, June 30 or July 7, 2012 (arrival between 2:00–4:00 PM) and concluding Friday, July 6 or July 13, 2012 (leave by 9:00 AM).
- Travel costs and conference fees for approved stake and district leaders should be paid out of the stake or district budget allowance. Expenses for family members should be paid by the participants.
- Members of stake presidencies may bring a member of the high council and/or stake Young Men president.
- The names of individuals who are not members of a stake or district presidency may be placed on a waiting list.

Family Participation

This Leadership Conference is a family experience. We encourage you to bring your wife and children with you to Philmont. With the exception of Mountain Trek, only members of your immediate family may attend with you.

- Your wife and children may participate in programs and full-day activities that include spiritual meetings, classes, tours, crafts, games, and hikes.
- Trained, experienced leaders are provided for each age-group.
- Even though you as a priesthood leader will participate in several conference training sessions, you will have adequate time to spend with your family.

Location

The Philmont Scout Ranch is located in northeastern New Mexico five miles south of Cimarron, 50 miles southwest of Raton, 60 miles northeast of Taos, 220 miles northeast of Albuquerque, and 270 miles south of Denver, Colorado.

Philmont Facilities

Facilities at the Philmont Training Center include:

- Comfortable tents with wooden or concrete floors, an electric light, a camp-style wardrobe cabinet, and two twin-size metal bed frames with mattresses. Some tents are equipped with ramps for individuals in wheelchairs.
- A trading post where you can purchase family sundries, stationery, candy, film, and cold drinks.

- An arts and crafts building.
- A playground in each tent city.
- A utility building in each tent city with restroom, showers, stove, and refrigerator.
- A laundry building with coin-operated washing machines and dryers.
- A health lodge with a full medical staff on duty 24-hours a day.
- Two dining halls which serve well-balanced menus cafeteria-style.

Daily Family Member Programs

Programs are conducted daily by the Philmont staff according to age groups.

- Programs operate from 8:30–11:20 AM and 1:15-3:30 PM with some exceptions.
 - Evenings are devoted to activities for the family.
 - Family members will be placed in the program according to their age as of their date of attendance:

- Deputies (boys ages 8–9) and Sidewinders (boys age 10) participate in day camp activities that include fishing, hiking, pony rides, archery, air-rifle shooting, sports, Villa and museum tours, foil cooking, Cub Day Olympics, and making handicrafts. Deputies and Sidewinders will earn Philmont's Cub Day Camp Patch.
- Trailblazers 1 (boys age 11) participate in camp activities each day that include hikes, nature activities, games, horse rides, archery, air-rifle shooting, and handicrafts.
- Trailblazers 2 (boys ages 12–13) participate in Scouting activities, hikes, an overnight camp in the backcountry, nature activities, games, horse rides, archery, air-rifle shooting, handicrafts, pioneering, and cooking.
- Mustangs (girls ages 11–13) participate in Villa and museum tours, day hikes, field sports, handicraft projects, horse rides, nature activities, outdoor cooking, and lawn games.
- Broncos (young men and young women ages 14–20 not on the Mountain Men/Mountain Women trek) participate in activities such as the “Challenging Outdoor Personal Experience” (C.O.P.E.) course, nature hikes, and horse rides.
- Prospectors (young single adults ages 21-30) may participate in nature hikes, tours, adult assemblies and talks, handicrafts, the C.O.P.E. course, or enjoy leisure time.

- Silverados (wives) may participate in nature hikes, Dutch oven cooking, tours, Indian Writing Camp, adult assemblies and talks, handicrafts, the C.O.P.E. course, or enjoy leisure time.
- The Mountain Men (young men ages 14–20) and Mountain Women (young women ages 14–20) participate in a unique six-day backcountry wilderness camping and hiking experience. Mountain Men and Mountain Women participants:
 - Must meet the minimum age and health requirements.
 - Are formed into separate 8-12 person crews of men only and women only led by two Philmont Rangers.
 - Should bring their own personal equipment (lists and additional information will be e-mailed to participants). Crew equipment is provided by Philmont.
 - Hike 20–30 miles into the backcountry.
 - Stay at several camps that offer a variety of exciting programs as well as time to relax and enjoy the natural beauty of Philmont.
 - May bring a friend (include name and information on the application form). The Mountain Trek may include one non-family participant for each family member participating in a trek. Mountain Trek participants must be 14 years of age and not yet 21. There can be no exceptions.
 - Will participate in a special Church service on Sunday led by a member of the Young Men general presidency or board or other presiding officer.

Sunday Meetings

A provisional ward is organized for Sunday services.

- Regular Sunday meetings are held including priesthood and sacrament meetings, Relief Society, Primary, Sunday School, Young Men, Young Women, and firesides.
- Officers and teachers of the "Philmont Ward" will receive an invitation (calling) and teaching materials from the Young Men and Primary general presidencies prior to arrival at Philmont.

Family Activities

- A family banner parade is held on Monday evening. You and members of your family are invited to prepare a banner representative of your family.
- Family home evening activities are also held on Monday evening. You and members of your family are invited to share a talent or otherwise participate.
- Primary-age children will participate in a Primary parade. Materials will be available for making costumes.

Clothing

Attire while at Philmont:

- Priesthood brethren should wear their official BSA field uniforms during the day (with the exception of Sunday).
- Wives should wear comfortable casual wear and comfortable shoes.
- Slacks are recommended for evening wear.
- Young men are encouraged to bring their appropriate Scout uniform (with the exception of the Mountain Trek youth).

- Children should wear comfortable play clothes.
- On the Sabbath, Sunday dress is appropriate for family members staying at the PTC.
- Hiking attire is appropriate Sunday dress for the Mountain Men and Mountain Women participants.
- Mountain Trekkers will wear Philmont t-shirts on the Mountain Trek. These will be provided to each trek youth upon arrival at Philmont.

Pets

- Pets are not allowed at Philmont (no exceptions). The Raton Animal Hospital will board pets at a standard daily rate. You must place your pet before arrival at Philmont.

Application

Conference spaces are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Space is limited, so please apply promptly.

- Fill out the enclosed application form. Confirmation will be emailed to you once your application has been approved. Please do not make travel arrangements or submit fees (other than the credit card number) until you receive a letter of confirmation from the LDS-BSA Relationships office.
- The submitted credit card number will not be charged, unless the approved conference attendee later cancels. At that time, a $100.00 non-refundable cancellation fee will be processed. No fees will be charged for those applicants on the waiting list.
