

1980

Faith in God Award, announced in 1978, recognizes Cub Scout boys in the Primary.

Duty to God Trail Award program ends in 1982.

1985

BSA Diamond Jubilee (75 years of Scouting). Church celebrates with special broadcast and a national jamboree patch.

Explorer Leadership Conference (E²). Directed by general YM pres. at Philmont. Run by Great Salt Lake Council from 1986-1993. Taylorsville Stake runs program for 17 years as PLC (Priests Leadership Conference).

1988

75th anniversary of Scouting in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is celebrated with a special Baden-Powell patch.

1990

"New Scout Patrol" is created by National BSA based on Church's program for new Scouts. Led by a troop guide

Blazer Scouts are renamed 11-year-old Scout patrol in 1995.

1991

Budget allowance helps units. Church now pays for activities and registration, excluding long-term camps.

1998

New BSA Venturing program replaces Exploring program, February 9. Its roots go back to old Vanguard and 1940s-1950s Exploring programs, with Outdoor Emphasis, Ranger and Silver Awards.

2001

Duty to God, Aaronic Priesthood program, emphasizes both Scouting and quorum requirements, has a separate book for each quorum, and a nice medallion.

Primary replaces its Faith In God Award with new requirements (medal is no longer awarded).

2007

100 years of World Scouting is celebrated with a World Jamboree in England and a unique patch in many languages: "One World, One Promise."

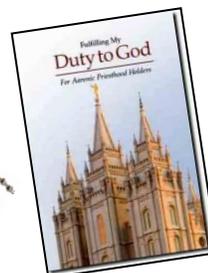

2010

BSA celebrates 100 Years of Scouting with a yearlong series of activities and a national jamboree, the last one held at Fort A.P. Hill in Virginia. Church creates patch and George Albert Smith Award.

"Fulfilling My Duty to God" replaces 2001 program. One book for all quorums; more individual goal setting; Learn, Act, Share emphasis.

2013

100 Years of Scouting in the Church is celebrated with a yearlong display at the Church History Museum and a commemoration program on October 29.

The Thomas S. Monson Award earned by Scouts and adults of all denominations at the 2013 National Jamboree and at centennial encampments throughout the country.

